Deep Condolences to the Family of Jocelyn Rojo Carranza

Gainesville, TX – The City of Gainesville expresses its profound sorrow and deepest condolences to the family, friends, and classmates of Jocelyn Rojo Carranza, whose tragic passing has deeply shaken our community.

“Our hearts are broken over the loss of Jocelyn,” said Mayor Tommy Moore. “We grieve with her family. As a community, we need to ensure that all of our community members, especially the youngest ones, feel safe and supported.”

For those in need of immediate emotional support, resources are available through the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline at 988 and through Cooke County Loss Team at 972-654-5677.
